

Versant English Speaking and Listening Test

Edward Mordey

Test Completion Date (GMT): 19 August 2025

Test Identification Number (TIN): 75785723

Overall GSE Score

Candidates at this level speak and comprehend at conversational speed with a little effort and can interact on many subjects with rather fluent, elaborated, and structured speech; can use diverse grammatical structures and typical English expressions; speak with good pronunciation and intelligibility.

Understanding the Skills

Overall Score

The Overall score reflects the ability to consistently understand spoken English and speak it with good grammar, vocabulary, and delivery. Scores are based on a combination of Speaking and Listening scores.

GSE

The Global Scale of English (GSE) is the global standard for measuring English language proficiency in detail on a simple 10 to 90 scale. Learn more about the GSE at pearson.com/languages.

Versant English Speaking and Listening Test

Edward MordeyTest Completion Date (GMT): 19 August 2025Test Identification Number (TIN): 75785723

Speaking

GSE: 52/90CEFR: B1+

Candidates at this level can speak on familiar topics with somewhat fluent speech yet lacking specificity and coherent organization; use appropriate vocabulary, English expressions, and grammatical structures in general, sometimes making inaccurate choices that may cause misunderstanding. Speech is somewhat fluent and intelligible, and candidates can interact in real time with some ease and confidence.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Choose several texts (e.g. a firsthand and secondhand account of a news article or two books with similar themes/characters). Practice summarising them, discussing contrasting points and main themes.
- Practice expressing your opinion about a news story. Try to use a range of language and expressions to express your opinion.

Speaking

The Speaking score reflects the ability to use English grammar and expressions accurately and appropriately in both constrained and more open-ended responses. Performance depends on clearly and accurately producing content and confidently presenting a view on a topic and giving reasons for it. Scores also reflect speaking with English pronunciation norms, conversational fluency, and in a way that proficient English speakers find understandable.

Manner of Speaking

GSE: 46/90CEFR: B1

Candidates at this level can be understood with some effort by listeners; pronounce most vowels and consonants understandably although accent is evident; use reasonable stress and rhythm in general; show frequent hesitations, repetitions, and repairs.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Find a passage you would like to practice. Listen to how a native speaker reads it and try to "shadow" that person by reading it aloud focusing on where to pause.
- Focus on pronouncing commonly used words, vocabulary in your field, and personal names rather than low-frequency words.

Manner of Speaking

The Manner of Speaking score reflects the ability to speak in a way that proficient English speakers easily find understandable. Performance depends on pronouncing English sounds in ways that are close to typical norms without too much of an accent. It also reflects the ability to speak at a normal conversational pace, without too much hesitation or unusual pauses between words, phrases, or sentences.

Listening

GSE: 83/90CEFR: C1

Candidates at this level can easily comprehend both short and extended speech with a range of vocabulary, at a conversational pace. Candidates' interactions show very good understanding of main points and nuances of passages and conversations in everyday workplace situations.

💡 Tips to improve:

- Listen to or watch extended, complex professional and technical presentations, trying to understand the details and speaker's viewpoints.
- Listen to or watch speeches by famous people, working on understanding their feelings, attitudes, and implied meanings.

Listening

The Listening score reflects the ability to understand specific details and main ideas from everyday and workplace speech spoken at a conversational pace.